Notice: Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions

The copyright law under the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs making photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified by law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or other reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use", that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

The Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum Archives reserves the right to refuse to accept a duplication order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

All duplication orders are accepted at our discretion. Photocopies of original materials may not be transferred to any other institution or individual without written permission. I further agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, Archives, and Foundation against all claims, demands, costs, and expenses incurred by copyright infringement or other legal or regulatory cause of action arising from the use of the Archives' materials.

My signature indicates that I have read and understood the above statement and the Copyright Notice on this form.
