NOTICE CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS:

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, archives and libraries are authorized to furnish photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted works. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use" the user may be liable for copyright infringement. The National Anthropological Archives reserves the right to refuse a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

I understand and agree to the above.
