

“WHO ARE YOU?” - IDENTIFYING YOUR PERSONAL LEADERSHIP PHILOSOPHY

PRESENTER: BRITTANY PARRIS

A personal leadership philosophy (PLP) “...strongly influences how we interpret reality and guide[s] our understanding of influencing humans...[and]...affects how we react to people, events, and situations around us.” (Ambler, 2012)

BELIEFS

What do you believe as a leader and how does this guide you?

ATTITUDE

When leading, what will your thoughts be like? What will your words be like?

PLP Components: Let's Break It Down!

To best guide others, determine what guides you.

PRINCIPLES

What do you value in a leader and how does that affect your leadership style?

BEHAVIOR

What actions do you expect to take? How do those actions vary in different situations?

Define these components for YOU. (Tip: Think of someone who inspires you!) Next, put these components together to build a personal leadership philosophy statement—aim for one paragraph at the most.
